UNIVERSITY IS ON FIRM BASIS

Cardinal Gibbons' Official Letter to the Clergy.

COLLECTION TO BE TAKEN UP

THANKS EXTENDED FOR PAST

April 14, 1904, unanimously adopted the following resolution:

Resolved, That his eminence, chancellor of the Catholic University of America, be required to write and to send to the hierarchy of the United States one month before the first Sunday of Advent, 1904, a letter of thanks the interest taken in the collection Malor of the university in 1903 and asking them to kindly keep up their generous solicitude for this worthy object by rec-ommending it to the reverend clergy and the laity of their respective jurisof generous devotion to their past or-ders. It is gratifying and encouraging to the trustees that so widespread an interest in the United States should be manifested in the welfare of the university which embodies the highest form of Catholic learning and is the most important undertaking of the nierarchy in view of the general good. In the name of the trustees as in my own, I tender you, your clergy and your peo-ple grateful acknowledgment for the share you have taken in the further-ance of this great work.

Financial Status. "With the collection and with donations from various sources, the receipts of the university for the last year, apart from its regular income, amounted to $150,809. Of these funds, $68,743 was employed in the payment of debts, $50,000 was invested, and the remainder debt. The amount donated by the Knights of Columbus and not included in the receipts mentioned was $50,000. This was also invested, making a total investment of $100,000. The funds were placed for investment. the finance committee appointed last year (1903) and composed of gentlemen who enjoy the highest reputation for integrity and business ability. The entire amount, therefore, resulting from he collection is absolutely free from the complications and risks to as you doubtless have learned through press, the general endowment of the university has recently been ex-

University Protected.

"Regarding the actual situation, I deem it my duty to inform you that the funds hitherto handled by the treasurer of the university aggregates $881,-000. The disposal of these funds in no way involves the property of the university, its lands, buildings or equipment. The funds themselves are pro-tected by securities which it is confidently believed will, in any equitable settlement, insure the university against serious losses.

'On the other hand, pending the final adjustment of all claims now in litiga-tion, the university is in a large measure deprived of the revenues which a have heretofore been available for its Je work. This is the more regrettable at the present time when the university should be so strengthened and developed as to attract our Catholic young men and withdraw them from non-Catholic institutions. With the utmost economy, as now practiced in every department, the income is not sufficient for the necessary expenses.

Sympathy Needed.

"The foregoing statement will uat-urally suggest a variety of reflections: but what is really needed just now is practical sympathy and generous cooperation. This, I am happy to say, has been shown by the trustees and by friends of the university. The amounts which have been guaranteed, together with the next annual collection, which, it is boped, will equal if not exceed that of last year, will enable us to invest a expenses are paid. Moreover, a system of financial administration already has been adopted that for the future will render the management of the funds absolutely secure. With the assistance of the hierarchy in the manner indicated by the holy father, we feel confident that the university will be placed on a sound financial basis. In justice to those who, as individuals or as associations, have endowed the university, we should see that its work is continued. Our Catholic people, I sincerely believe, will aid liberally in supporting an institution founded by the American episthe common good of the clergy and laity in all our dioceses. To our non-Catholic fellow citizens, our united efforts in behalf of the university under any circumstances will plainly show that we have at heart the best interests of education and that we are not to be thwarted by difficulties.

Collection to be Taken Up. "As I am prepared to do all in my power to build up the university and determined to guarantee it against loss, even at the sacrifice of all I possess, I

Mother Coaches Little Ones on Theft of Coal.

Even a car load of coal may be converted into a school of crime if the' right system is used. An observant citizen witnessed a striking lesson in the early stages of criminality yesterday in which a mother played the part of the teacher with her two young children as pupils. Incidentally the home was supplied with about 500 pounds of coal.

The arrangement for the lesson was this: A small boy, not over 6 or 7, was on top of the car filling buckets with coal. These were passed to the mother who stood on the bumpers between the cars and gave instructions. By her the buckets of coal were passed down to a young girl on the ground who carried them to the home not over a hundred yards away.

The story from Victoria of the barkentine being overloaded with deck cargo and turning turtle, is probably untrue. The Mawe-well was well down in the water with coal, and the rough dimension lumber which is being found along the shores is certainly not from the Makewell. The fact that a life buoy, bearing the barkentine's name, has been carried ashore is no proof that the ship has gone to the bottom. While nothing has been heard of the Makewell since she sailed from Tacoma, Oct. 30, it is possi-ble that she may have been carried to the north in the high gales, but the finding of lumber shows that it is some other vessel than the barkentine which

Portland, Ore., Nov. 20.—The unusually severe storm of wind and rain which has prevailed off the Oregon coast for the past few days is subsiding, although there was seemingly little less force to the gale today than yesterday, when a maximum of eighty-eight miles an hour was reached at Astoria.

New York, Nov. 20.—Of the two great events which mark the formal opening of the season in the metropolis, one has closed a brilliant week and the other will begin tomorrow night. Horse show week is past, having been marked by an outpouring of society hardly So far as known there has been no disaster to shipping. Owing to a miscalculation in the day she was due to arrive and a private message from Astoria that the Portland & San Francisco steamer George W. Elder had experienced a terrible trip, a report became widely cripcled this afternoon that the steamer had put into Astoria in a badly crippled condition and was making slow progress. The Elder arrived at her dock in Portland two hours ahead of time and reported no more serious mishap than the bruising of several of the passengers who were unable to keep their feet.

Notwithstanding the safe arrival of the Elder, there is considerable nervousness in marine circles concerning the safety of several craft about due at Astoria. Two schooners sighted Friday have not been seen since. The wires to nearly all the wind subsides.

PRAISE FOR JOSEPH SMITH. Seymour B. Young Compares Him to Christ-Scientists Attacked.

At the tabernacle service yesterday afternoon Seymour B. Young, one of the seven presidents of the seventies, discoursed on the life and character of Joseph Smith, the prophet. He said Joseph Smith was one of those choice spirits whom the Lord had chosen be-fore he came to earth. It was his mission to promulgate the true faith. On he occasion of his first interview with BAPTIST LADIES TO MEET.—The La-lies' Aid society of the First Baptist hurch will meet, with Mrs. Miner. 255 Vest Fifth South street, Friday afternoon answered that none was the true answered that none was the true church, for they had all gone astray, and while they worshiped him with their lips their hearts were far from being true to him.

President Young told of the forty days' fast of Jesus Christ and of his temptation by Satan. Joseph Smith was also tempted by the evil one all through his earthly career, and like Christ he resisted to the end..

In the fall of 1832 a stake had been organized at Kirtland. O., and it proposed to build a place in which to worship. Some wanted to build a frame building, others a brick and others still a stone building.

Young, who was then an elder, arose in the midst of the congregation and proposed that the proposition be referred to Joseph Smith. This was done and a few days later Joseph Smith an eed that the Lord had revealed t him that a temple should be built. At the dedication of the temple in Octo-ber, 1836, Oliver Cowdrey called atten-D. A. Todd of Heber is at the Culien.

ber, 1836, Oliver Cowdrey called attention to the fact that many churches, chapels, synagogues and other places of worship had been dedicated to St H. Jerome Toy and wife of Denver are John, St. Paul and various other saints, but none to God. The temple at Kirt-land was the first place of worship thus dedicated, said the speaker.

Subsequently, while they were in the Kirtland temple, Joseph Smith and Oliver Cowdrey saw and talked with Jesus Christ. They also saw and talked with Moses, Elias, Elijah and other biblical characters, who passed along the power and dominion they were supposed to cssess to the prophet of the later time. In conclusion President Young argued that the Mormon is the only true church now on earth, and predicted that it would keep on growing until it spread all over the earth.

Rulon S. Wells, another of the presidents of the seventies, made a brief talk. He attacked the higher criticism and the scientists who reject revealed religion because it does not square with their alleged discoveries in the field of science and their conclusions on scien-tific matters. He denied that there some form of worship.

RAILROAD GRADERS AT WORK IN WYOMING

(Special to The Herald.)

LONDON STOCK EXCHANGE.

Several Causes Threw the Market Into a Semi-Panic. Cheyenne, Wyo., Nov. 20.—The Afton Independent, published at Afton. Uinta county, announces that it has been reliably informed that the Burlington railroad has 500 men and teams at work on a grade heading for the Grand Canyon of the Snake River in northern Uinta county, the move being for the purpose of heading off any other roads building through the canyon, which is the only feasible route through the Gros Ventrand Snake river ranges, and the move is regarded more especially as an attempt to defeat the plans of the Northwestern in extending its lines westward from Casper through the Teton country and into Idaho and Utah. It is also known that the route proposed of the Colorado, Wyoming & Idaho railway, which is to be built from Denver through Wyoming to Boise, passes through the Grand Canyon of the Snake, and it may be that the graders are in the employ of the latter concern.

London, Nov. 20.—Rumors of a collision in Afghanistan and of a hitch in the Anglo-Russian regotiations threw the stock exchange the past week into a nervous condition, depressing all the markets and greatly restricting business. While there is no belief in the possibility of war between Great Britain and Russia operators are extremely sensitive and cautious. On Saturday reassuring reports brought a return of confidence and the market rapidly improved. The allotment of the Japanese loan has been arranged as far as possible in favor of small investors. The fluctuations in the American market were very erratic, apparently the outcome of Wall street influence which could not be accurately gauged here; but generally great confidence is felt in the future of American securities.
